

A Turner Bibliography

The list which follows is a select bibliography chosen from the vast body of literature on Turner. With a few exceptions, more general and introductory works are omitted, as are many catalogues of exhibitions, especially those which provided general overviews of the artist.

Between 1982 and 1993 the journal Turner Studies (published by the Tate) carried many important articles on Turner. Others have appeared, and continue to appear, elsewhere, notably in Turner Society News.
